
ADELE WICK, 1950-2015

Adele Ernst Wick died at her home in Greenland, N.H. on September 27, 2015. She had served as president of the Robert Schalkenbach Foundation from May 2005 to May 2009.

Born in 1950, in Gates Mills, Ohio, Adele received her B.A. in Economics from Wellesley College in 1972. Adele continued her education at the University of Chicago, receiving an M.A. in economics in 1976.

Adele taught Economics at the University of Tulane in the early 1980's. The family moved from New Orleans, La., to Greenland, N.H., in 1986. She took on many volunteer and free lance assignments while she was raising her children, including work on oral histories with the family of Cyrus Eaton. Her local work in Greenland included youth soccer, Greenland Public Library and the Weeks Brick House. She also took tremendous pride in pioneering Greenland's recycling program. Adele worked with Pugwash, the peace-promoting project started by Cyrus Eaton of Cleveland.

She is survived by her sister Mary Bole; her four children, Douglas Miller, Patrick Miller, Charlie Miller, and Elizabeth Miller, and her grandchild Henry Miller.

<<

====